

Our Congregation

Congregation of the Holy Family (CHF) was founded by Saint Marian Thressia in a remote village called Puthenchira in Thrissur District, Kerala in the year 1914 with the determination of imparting Christian values to the families. Our Foundress Saint Mariam Thressia had a great plan and foresight regarding the growth and holistic development of future generation; when she starts our first school at Puthenchira her native place. Saint MariamThressia dreamed of a world with fully educated people especially Women Education as that they could contribute to the welfare of the society and nation. With the intercession of the Saint Mariam Thressia, all the CHF institutions had achieved a tremendous growth in the field of education.

About Our College

The Holy Family College of Education for Women is the realization of a long cherished dream, the fulfilment of a noble vision of St.Mariam Thressia in 1995. The college is managed by Marian Service Society, run by Congregation of Holy Family. Holy Family College of Education for Women, Koduvayur is affiliated to the University of Calicut and recognized by the National Council for Teacher Education and accredited by NAAC with 'B' Grade. With a view in catering to the ever growing needs of education for girls of the region, a women's college was started in 1995 to enable them to pursue their studies in a protected campus. It has developed and progressed at a rapid speed, occupying a prestigious place among the educational institutions of Higher Learning.
